

Frequently Asked Questions

Are you dog friendly?

Unfortunately we can't allow our furry friends indoors, but we do allow them on our outdoor terraces in both restaurants, so please make sure to add it to the notes section when you're making a booking.

You can also speak with the restaurant manager directly by getting in touch with the restaurant.

All contact details can be found on www.emiliaspasta.com

Is your meat halal?

Unfortunately, our meat isn't halal. However, we have plenty of veggie/vegan options you can choose from. Click here to check our main menu!

Are you gluten-free?

Unfortunately we cannot call ourselves a gluten-free restaurant as cross-contamination is inevitable. We have some dishes which are naturally GF (to name a few: burrata and heritage tomatoes salad, pannacotta, rocket and parmesan salad), but there could still be cross contamination. We'd recommend getting in contact with the restaurant directly and ask to speak with the manager. Depending on the severity of your allergy they'll be able to advise you better! All contact details can be found on www.emiliaspasta.com

How can I book for 5+ people?

To book for a group of 5+ people we kindly ask you to get in contact with the restaurant directly.

All contact details can be found on www.emiliaspasta.com

Can I book to eat outside?

At the moment we're only accepting reservations for our Aldgate outdoor terrace, which is sheltered from wind and rain. We also provide you with warm blankets that are available on a first come first served basis.

Being a large outdoor area, it can welcome groups up to 30 people. Get in contact with the restaurant directly by either calling the no. +44 \(0\) 207 702 9944 or by sending an email to aldgate@emiliaspasta.com.

Our small St Katharine Docks outdoor area cannot be booked and is available on a first come first served basis. You can still add the preference to be seated outside when making your booking (via phone or OpenTable), but whilst we'll try our best to accommodate your request, please bear in mind that it is totally at the discretion of the restaurant manager and dependent on availability.